

I think the law should remain in place as is for the no call list in New Jersey. We has citizens should not be subject to the numerous calls from sales people at all hours. We are able body people who know how to contact companies if we need to purchase items.